Green, Brown To Head Senate; 2,076 Students Cast Record Vote

High Student Mark
Stated As 70% Vote

By ERWIN FALKENHEIM

The largest number of student voters in University history turned out Wednesday and elected Charles Green president of Student Senate; Nancy Brown, vice-president; Carol Payne, secretary; and Harry Bowers, treasurer.

Green gathered 1,054 votes; Brown, 1,073; Payne, 1,419; and Bowers, 1,128. A record breaking 2,076 students cast their ballots in this mass election which was held in the front room of the Nest from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Students voted for class officers, Student Senate officers and representatives, and May Queen and court. Ballots were taken to Johnston Hospital to give those students there an opportunity to vote.

Representatives Listed

At the time the B-G News went to press, only the junior class officers and the senior president and vice-president votes were counted so far. The complete lists of all class officers will appear in Tuesday's issue.

Senior president and vice-president next year are Fred Frisbie and Bob Cochrane. Junior officers for next year are William Melvin, president Pat Vietmeyer, vice-president Flo Harmon, secretary; and Fred Miller, treasurer.

In a statement issued to the B-G News, Pres. Ralph W. McDonald said, "Wednesday's election is a red letter day for the University, and marks a new high in student interest in student self-government. Congratulations to the winners and to all the participants."

Dawson Thanks Students

Dave Dawson, chairman of the elections committee, expressed his thanks for the overall cooperation from students. He also expressed his thanks to election workers, particularly those who worked at the polls, and those who tabulated votes Wednesday night. "If given a chance," Dawson said, "student interest can be very high. I am very pleased with the fine showing made."

An indication of the student enthusiasm was shown by the fact that over 1,400 students turned out for the election rally held in the stadium Tuesday night. Students heard speeches by Dr. McDonald and nominees for Student Senate presidency. Candidates for Student Senate representative and for May Queen and court were introduced.

Short announcements on the PA system publicized the election between classes.

Students Can Learn While Relaxing With T-V Classes

By PAT FINE

Would you like to attend classes in your pajamas, with breakfast at your side and the morning paper in your lap? To be absent or tardy would you like it to be merely a matter of turning a little knob?

These questions are not as impossible as they sound, because within a few years, this may be the typical college life!

Television has invaded the classroom for educational purposes. Ten universities in the United States have already applied for educational grants and 27 others

Senate Groups Joined For NSA Study

Two Student Senate committees will meet together this week to prepare a final report concerning National Student Association. The NSA investigating committee and the delegation to the recent NSA regional assembly will present their findings at Monday's Senate meeting.

The two groups were combined last Monday when Senators indicated they wanted further information and clarification of several points before voting on affiliation with NSA.

Final action will be taken May 18.

In a straw vote, eleven senators indicated they felt well enough informed to vote on affiliation immediately.

Senate rejected the report of the committee on loyalty in higher education which suggested that a forum be held to discuss the matter.

Five students were chosen to plan the Senate banquet. They are Sally Schmidt, Lamont Greene, Lois Diehl, Delores Swayne, and Sally Moran.

Draft Rating Tests Scheduled May 21 For B-G Campus

Selective Service College Qualification tests will be given at Bowling Green State University May 21, according to information received from the local Wood County draft board.

These tests are available only to those who could not take the test on December 4, 1952 or April 23, 1953.

To be eligible to take the test on May 21, students need not have applied to take the test on April 23 or Dec. 4. All applicants, however, must go to the local draft board to complete a form of application. The draft board will give any assistance required. These applications must be postmarked no later than May 11.

The local board wishes to emphasize the fact that students must apply in person and there can be only one form per applicant.

Along with his form the applicant will receive an information bulletin which contains a sample test.

Leipsic HS Chorus Visits Campus Today

The Leipsic High School Chorus is visiting the campus today in celebration of winning a superior rating in the state choral competition.

The high school students will listen to the morning section of the A Cappella Choir at 10 a.m., and will sing for Choir Director J. Paul Kennedy at 11 a.m.

Fraternities Face Pro If Grades Below 2.25

Students' Art Exhibit Opens 2 p. m. Sunday

The second annual Student Art Exhibit will open Sunday with a public reception from 2 to 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts gallery, according to Otto G. Oevirk, adviser to Delta Phi Delta, national art honorary, which is sponsoring the exhibit.

Works will be reviewed by the art faculty and final judging will be done by two Kent State University art professors, Robert Day and Homer Weiner.

Awards will be given as follows: best in show, $5 cash and $5 worth of materials; second in show, $5 worth of materials; best outside of class, $5 worth of materials and second outside of class, $5 worth of materials.

No work will be permitted that was entered in last year's show, however, classroom and outside work will be exhibited.

All items in the show have been completed within the last two years.

Classifications of works are oils, watercolors, gouache, tempera, drawings, prints, ceramics, sculpture, and design in textiles, rugs, crafts, and leatherwork.

Miller And Nichols Take 'Eyas' Contest

George Miller Jr. and Alan Nichols have won the best short story and poetry contests sponsored by "Eyas," campus literary magazine. Miller's "Another's Wine" and Nichols' "The Weaver's Trade" won $5 each, stated June Emery, editor.

The 28-page "Eyas" will be sold beginning Tuesday in the Nest. The magazine was not issued first semester due to lack of contributors. It is supported by subscriptions and sales.

Other contributors are: Don Warne, Janice Everingham, Shirley Good, Jean Butler, Don Nowland, Hal Jacobson, Maroe Decker, Lee Ellison, and John Domer.

Writers are given their first opportunity to write on a professional level by contributing to "Eyas." This does not mean that their writing is representative of the campus level, according to the editor.

Gene Hnatko, Mary Jean Connelly, and Marlene Swanzel are staff members of the magazine.

Senior Announcements Distributed In Well

Senior graduation announcements are being distributed in the Well through May 13 from 9-12 a.m. and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Announcement receipts must be presented when announcements are received. There will be a limited number of announcements and souvenir booklets available for order at this time. Orders must be paid in advance.

Air Force Gets Texts

Some 145,000 AFROTC cadets will have new Air Force textbooks next year. The books were written by experts in the various fields, and edited by a staff of professional writers under the direction of Charles E. Bounds, head of the journalism department of the University of Alabama.

All fraternities will have to make a 2.25 average next semester or they will be placed on social probation, according to Lamont Greene, president of IFC.

The rule, passed at a special meeting of IFC last Tuesday evening, will go into effect next semester.

If a fraternity falls below the required average it will not be allowed to have women in the house or participate in campus events, including intramurals. It will still have a vote on IFC.

At Wednesday night's meeting of IFC the new rushing plan was discussed. An orientation week for all freshmen will be sponsored by IFC, during which all freshmen who are interested in pledging must sign up. During this orientation week freshmen will have the opportunity to visit all fraternity houses under the supervision of IFC.

20 Medals Taken By Swan Clubbers In Detroit Contest

Bowling Green Swan Club swimmers won 20 medals in synchronized swimming competition held in Patton Pool, Detroit, May 2 and 3.

In the women's solo event Sally Buck, Swan Club president, placed third in a field of 17 entries. Herbert Scogg took a third in the men's division.

Connie Wood and Eve Williams were awarded second place in the duet event while Patricia Wallace Welt and Colette Williams gained fourth place in this competition.

The team of Frances Isch, Elyce Joerling, Susan Mignerey, Joyce Shields, Eve Williams, and Connie Wood placed second in the women's team competition. A second team of Sally Buck, Jean Mercer, Kay Fisher, Nancy Terry, Barbara Rau, Patricia Soares, Colette Williams, and Patricia Welt gained third place in this event.

Miss Iris E. Andrews, assistant professor of health and physical education, is adviser to the group.

ROTC PARADES TODAY

The annual combined Army and Air Force ROTC parade will be held today at 12:30 p.m. in front of the Ad. Bldg. The parade will honor Pres. Ralph W. McDonald.

BG Pioneers In Training For Top-Level Teachers

"Bowling Green State University is a pioneer in the field of training for college teaching on the master's level," said Dr. John E. Wenrick, professor of psychology.

Seven graduate students in psychology are engaged in a practice teaching program for MA candidates in that field under the direction of Dr. Cecil M. Freeburne, associate professor of psychology.

Dr. Freeburne stated that the class meets six times a year, three times each semester. During the year each student prepares his teaching unit with the help of the professor who is to supervise.

Student Gives Lectures

The student gives two or three lectures, usually to a psychology 101 or 102 class, writes and administers a test, and goes over the test with the class. The professor usually helps with the preparation of the test and sits in on the class, ready to help the student out of any difficulties that might arise.

A tape recording of one of the lectures is made and played back to the student while the scene is

APhIO Bloodmobile Obtains 1,012 Pints To Surpass Quota

Donors, giving a total of 193 pints of blood during last Tuesday's visit of the bloodmobile, helped to surpass the 1,000 pint over-all quota set by Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, by 12 pints, it was announced by Gage Mersereau, chairman.

A total of 226 persons were recorded as being processed, 33 of them being rejected. Previous to Tuesday's visit 819 pints of blood had been donated for an average of 163.8 pints per visit. Tuesday's total brought the average for six visits to 168.7 pints.

Mersereau, in behalf of APhIO, wishes to thank all persons who so willingly donated and also those who aided in any way to make this blood campaign a success.

Assisting Mersereau was Ron Eiserling, co-chairman.

Orchestra Gives Final Concert May 18 In Aud.

The University Symphony, conducted by Gerald McLaughlin, assistant professor of music, will be heard in its last concert of this season at 8:15 p.m. Monday, May 18, in the Main Aud.

Joseph Himmel, baritone, will solo with the orchestra in this last performance. Mr. Himmel joined the music faculty of Bowling Green State University in 1947. He received his musical training at North Central College, Northwestern University; the University of Munich, Germany; the State Conservatory of Munich; as well as studying with Alexander Kipnis and Gerhard Huesch.

While in Germany, Mr. Himmel was soloist with members of the Munich Philharmonic Symphony on a tour of special performances of baroque music.

Feature Number

The orchestra will feature a performance of the Kalinnikov Symphony No. 1, in G Minor. This little-known symphony will be heard for the first time in Northwestern Ohio on the coming concert.

The University Symphony will also play a concert at Ada the evening of May 20, in the Ohio Northern University Concert Series at Lehr Auditorium in Ada.

Roger Heppell Named Geography Instructor

Roger C. Heppell has been appointed instructor in geography here starting next semester. Mr. Heppell, who has been instructor in geography at Pennsylvania State College, will receive a doctor of philosophy degree from Pennsylvania in September.

Anthony To Be Chariot Race Mystery Judge

Ray Anthony, well-known band-leader, has been revealed as the famous mystery judge who picked Kappa Sigma's Venus and attendants for the fraternity's annual Chariot Race tomorrow.

John Maragakes, chairman of the race, recently kept a secret rendezvous with Anthony in the lobby of a Toledo hotel. The identity of the judge has been unknown, even to members of the fraternity, until now.

Anthony made the choice of Venus official by autographing the pictures of the two attendants and writing a congratulatory note on the picture of the girl chosen as Venus.

The names of Venus and her attendants will not be revealed until the chariot race. The candidates will be notified sometime before noon tomorrow.

Look magazine has notified the fraternity that it will not be able to cover the event, as it had previously considered.

Chariots and togas will be seen as sororities, fraternities, and dormitory groups parade through town and return to the intramural fields behind the Women's Gym where the races will be held. The parade will begin at 12:45 p.m. Saturday.

Chariot entries will be judged as they enter the practice field. The group with the "most authentic and beautiful chariot" will receive a 14-inch cup.

Venus, queen of the Chariot Race, will then be presented to reign over the racing events.

Elimination Heats Held

The races will begin with elimination heats in both the men's and women's divisions. Winners of these will compete in a final race. Identical 18-inch cups will be presented to the winners in both divisions.

The idea for the Chariot races here, originated at Baldwin Wallace College when several BG Kappa Sigmas saw the races held there. The fraternity began sponsoring the affair here in 1947, in place of their all-campus dance.

Circular Track Used

Races were originally held in the circular track in the Stadium, but were moved to the straight track because of chariots tipping and wheels falling off.

Last year's Venus was Flora Ufferman, attended by Barbara Jisa and Gretchen Van Brunt.

Rummage Boxes Placed In Dorms

Rummage sale contribution boxes have been placed in sorority and fraternity houses and dormitories by Ray Whittaker, assistant dean of men, and Bruce Bellard, of the men's physical education department.

The rummage sale and auction is being sponsored by Kiwanis Service Club, which hopes to raise $1,000 for local youth services.

Students have been asked to contribute any salable items, such as suits, sweaters, ties, skirts, coats, shoes, costume jewelry, formal, etc. Bedroom furnishings can also be used.

In Park, Garage

The rummage sale will be held at the show rooms of the Chevrolet Garage on South Main St., Friday and Saturday, May 15-16.

The auction sale will be at City Park, Wednesday, May 20.

The women's committee in charge of the rummage sale includes Mrs. Waldo Steidtmann, Mrs. Luther Bivins, and Mrs. Kenneth McFall.

To Help Youth of BG

Dean Harshman, one of the Kiwanis members says, "This is a wonderful opportunity for the young people of the University to help the youth of Bowling Green." Alpha Phi Omega, campus service fraternity, is giving its support to the project.

Cartons will be collected from the houses on May 12 and 13.

In Our Opinion

Elections And PR Prosper

"Why didn't they do this sooner?" seemed to be the typical comment of students who witnessed the mass rally and election held this week. General campus comment has termed both events successes.

The responsibility for the two affairs belongs to two Student Senate committees—one that's been long established and the other just formed this year.

Dave Dawson and his election committee were brought to a supreme test when they had to handle campaigning procedure for candidates, and to make sure that balloting ran smoothly for 2,076 voters.

For the first time, candidates and voting have numbered extremely high.

The newly-organized public relations committee, with Don Brenner as chairman, is responsible for making the path between Senate and the groups which directly affect it a bit smoother. Besides publicizing Senate, the group also made the complete plans for Tuesday night's rally.

Both committees have a potential membership of many students, but both work effectively and out of the limelight. In doing so they have gained the respect of those who've known of their activities. Their achievements have earned them a well-deserved berth in student affairs.

Dances Deserve Praise

With excellent lighting effects and a sense of exactness in their dances, Orchestras members proved once again the importance of modern dance as an art in their annual dance concert held last week end. Congratulations are in order for a hard-working group of students who allowed the public to view such a magnificent and skilled program.

Lines at Deadline

Obnoxious Olaf speaking: "That extravaganza rally held Wednesday night in the stadium for Senate and class officers looked like it had more students than some of our football games."

Two little boys were standing on the Lab School field. A little girl passed by.
Said one: "Her necks dirty."
Said the other: "Her does!"

More than ducks were swimming in Urschel Pond last week end when the temperature soared. Not a bad idea—that is, if it ever stops drizzling.

Tons of dirt circulate in the air over Bowling Green—but you don't have to listen to it if you don't want to.

Comment of student who entered the Main Aud. last Friday night thinking that he would see a campus movie instead of Orchestras' annual dance concert: "Holy smoke, those three dimension movies are sure life-like!"

Ohio State's Lantern has the following classified ad divisions: Wanted, Typist, For Sale.

Students at the University of Washington hope to collect 4,500 pints of blood during a drive to be held May 5 through 15 on campus... this could be something to think about.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The committees in charge of the district state finals of the high school scholarship tests wishes to take this opportunity to thank all the students and faculty who assisted in any way with the tests on Saturday, May 2. We wish we could thank each of you personally but are unable to do so.

The size of the task will be realized when we tell you that 1,846 high school students participated on our campus and an additional 1,100 at Heidelberg and Ohio Northern. All the final processing was completed on our campus. It was a big task and we really needed your help. Please accept our sincere thanks.

The Committee on High School Scholarship Tests
Wayne S. Huffman, chairman

Dear Editor:

In the editorial of your May 1 issue, you seem to express surprise at the desire on the part of some to have Student Senate investigate the B-G News. It is implied that you believe the newspaper to be meeting the needs of the student body satisfactory. Is it?

A college newspaper exerts a great influence on the intellectual and cultural life of a campus. If its newspaper is dead in these respects, then it is more than likely that the campus will be dead.

Our newspaper is dead.
In my two semesters here, I have never seen an article in The B-G News by a student on Richard Wright's new novel, or the Korean war, or a new scientific development, or Congressional investigations into higher education, or new trends in art, in short, on any of those things that a thinking, intellectually-aware student body should be discussing. And you wonder why anybody would want to see you investigated!

What can be done to correct the existing situation? I have a few suggestions. First, the editorial page should be opened up to uncensored student articles on art, politics, campus affairs, science, etc., representing different points of view. Second, the newspaper should be made independent of the journalism department, and other students besides those majoring in journalism should be encouraged to join the staff with full privileges. Third, the Publications Committee should have a higher proportion of student members than it does at present.

If your staff does not rectify the faults of the newspaper, the democratically-elected representatives of the student body (i.e., Student Senate), have more than a right—they have the duty—to investigate the matter and take necessary action.

Stanley Guterman
29 West Hall

(Editor's Note:

We thank you for saying that a college newspaper exerts a great influence, although we realize that you are probably one of many students across the nation who think that their college paper isn't top-notch (according to a recent nationwide press poll). However, we try to represent the thinking of the greatest portion of our campus.

According to your opinion, "Our newspaper is dead." You maintain that if it is dead the campus will be also. We believe the case to be vice versa: we are not a creator of news, we are its mirror and interpreter.

Of course our columns should carry more student-written material appealing to higher thought! However, it is hard to find competent student special-

Education Honorary Initiates 22 Members At Dinner Meeting

Twenty-two members were initiated and officers for 1953-54 elected at the dinner meeting of Kappa Delta Pi, honor society in education, at the Commons.

Herbert Collier was elected president of the group. Other officers are Joy Traver, vice-president; Betty Gorsuch, corresponding secretary; Norma Vlasak, recording secretary; Harold McGrady, historian and Dr. Charles W. Young, treasurer.

Dr. Walter A. Zaugg will be counselor and Dr. Florence J. Williamson, adviser for the group.

Initiates are Pauline Beneke, Helen Butte, Robert Daniszewski, Richard Davis, Marilyn Early, Rosemary Herring, Laurel Holan, Adolph Joseph, Marilyn Mawhorter, Alice Meyrick, Janet Osman, Bill Quillen, Lorna Raynak, Fred Robertson, Juana Ruiz, Donald Schrom, Mary Schumann, Barbara Shiller, Hilda Taylor, Rebecca Tomlinson, Kathleen Wellbaum, and John Youngpeter.

Dr. Walter A. Zaugg was awarded the Kappa Delta Pi honor key for outstanding contributions in the field of education. The award is given by the national executive council of Kappa Delta Pi to persons who have been a member for a minimum of 15 years. Dr. Zaugg was a charter member of Beta Psi chapter at New York University in 1930.

Dr. Maurice Newburger, executive psychologist at the Bureau of Juvenile Research in Columbus, spoke on "The Psychologist Looks at the Troubled Child."

Swan Club Elects

Pat Pietras has been elected president of Swan Club for next year. Other officers chosen at the recent election are Barbara Rau, vice-president, and Ann Dunipace, secretary-treasurer. Barbara Biechele was named to head publicity and Diane Prentice was appointed manager.

ists who are willing to write easy-to-read material, meet deadlines, and then face campus-wide criticism of their work. Lack of space, and recognition of "Eyes" as the campus literary magazine sometimes prohibits us from printing this type of feature material.

May we make clear here that the News is NOT censored except through normal copyreading, proofreading, and editing procedures which are done on any newspaper. We have the same relations with the administration that you, as a student, have. An "investigation" would most likely result in some form of censorship.

The B-G News, if taken out of the journalism department, would probably fold. Finances alone would cause this. The department pays for the bills of the paper which Ac fees and advertising only partially cover.

Anyone is welcome to join the News staff. If he can measure up to the responsibility of "full privileges" required of a good writer and reporter.

We appreciate investigation if we are so guilty that such a measure is the wish of the entire student body. When that time comes, Senate SHOULD take action. We sincerely welcome constructive criticism—our policies are available for consideration at all times.)

Stiff Prep Studies In Germany Equip Student To Shine Here

By Don Hammerstrom

Did you ever have to prepare for comprehensive exams in fifteen subjects covering nine years of school work? That's the task which faces potential graduates from German high schools.

Evidently this sort of thing is good training because Herbert A. Goertz, a native of Aachen, Germany, who is a special student on campus, received all A's last semester.

Of the 34 foreign students enrolled in the University, he is the only one to receive perfect grades.

Herb says that in Germany there are no cut systems, no outside assignments, and no tests, but at the end of four college years, students must pass their comprehensives to graduate.

Studying Graduate Courses

He has studied economics for one semester at the University of Cologne. At Bowling Green he is taking graduate level courses. The foreign student is on a one-year scholarship jointly sponsored by the Department of State and the Institute of International Education.

He hopes to finish his degree in law and economics at the University of Cologne and intends to enter industrial exporting.

"There is no campus life in Germany and there are no dormitories," said Herb. He likes the American system better because students get to know each other informally.

Herb also likes the American custom of using first names. In Germany students always address each other as mister. "Here it's less restrained," he said.

Speaks Five Languages

This student can use first names in five languages which he learned at German schools. He speaks English, French, German, and Spanish and has studied Latin six years.

For recreation, Herb plays tennis, handball, and soccer. He holds a German lifesaving certificate in swimming.

From the way he rode for MIS

in the Delta Upsilon bike race, it appears that he can hold more than his own on a bicycle, too.

When his visa expires in July, Herb intends to apply for an extension which will enable him to work and travel in this country until the end of 1953.

BG Entertains Eleven Schools In Third Annual Track Relays

The third annual Bowling Green Relays will be held tomorrow at the stadium starting with a parade at 1:15 p.m. followed by the running events at 1:45.

Eleven colleges are scheduled to run with the possibility of more schools entering before the deadline. The college teams will run in classes according to size. Comprising the A division will be Wayne, Western Michigan, Baldwin-Wallace, and Bowling Green. The B division will be made up of Central State, Ohio Wesleyan, Central Michigan, Hillsdale, Mt. Union, Capital, and Kalamazoo, the defending champion in this division.

The defending champ in the large school division, Michigan Normal, has refused to compete because of the ineligibility of freshmen.

Also included in the day's program will be a 440-yd. relay and a 880-yd. relay between six Bowling Green fraternities. The Greeks entered so far are Theta Chi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta, and Phi Delta Theta.

High Schools Entered
Another highlight will be the high school events with Findlay, Libbey (Toledo), DeVilbiss (Toledo), Bowling Green, Napoleon, Defiance, and Perrysburg competing. These schools will comprise the class A section for high schools. The other class will be composed of other Wood County high schools.

A pre-meet parade, the choosing of a Relays queen, and many other events are planned as part of the festivities.

Golfers Blast Mich. Normal; Meet Wayne U

Bowling Green's Falcon golfers play host to a tough Wayne University squad this afternoon after enjoying a field day here Tuesday against Michigan Normal. The locals nearly blasted the Hurons off the course in winning 17-1.

Every member of the Bowling Green team came through with comparatively easy victories in the rout, and just missed a shut-out as Steve Tngelescu of Michigan Normal edged out BG's Virg English in their second nine holes of the match, 45-46.

English, as well as the rest of the squad, won the remainder of the matches, however.

Slough And Dysinger Win Easily

In the individual matches, medalist Dave Slough of Bowling Green defeated Norm Dale, 74-81. Jim Dysinger had an easy time in his match with MN's Navarre, winning 76-91.

Dick Rodney and English slammed out victories over Normal's Leo Dalbo and Tngelescu to round out the individual play. Rodney won 80-93, while English finished with the closest decision of the afternoon, 89-94.

Bowling Season Is Drawing To Close; Sig Eps In Lead

Sigma Phi Epsilon is assured of at least a tie for first place in the interfraternity bowling league, for with only one week of action left, they lead the second running Sigma Alpha Epsilon team by three points.

In Friday night's play the Sigma Nus were dropped out of contention for any position other than the fourth-place slot they already hold. They lost two games to the Phi Kappa Psi's, leaving them three points behind the SAEs and two and one half games behind the third-place Phi Kappa Tau five.

There were two highlights in Friday's league play, Bob Lloyd virtually sewing up the trophy for individual high series by rolling a three game total of 636, and Rudy Barto making a fine attempt to beat out Arlo Ragan's 262 single game record for the year by rolling a neat 255 game.

Tennis Team Meets Kent State And Reserve In MAC Affairs

Coach Ken Walker's net squad journeys to Kent State this afternoon, and then on to Western Reserve tomorrow for a pair of Mid-American affairs with hopes of breaking up their current three-game losing streak.

The Falcons suffered another defeat at Toledo Tuesday as they lost a lopsided 7 to 1 affair to the TU Rockets at Toledo's Jermain Park.

Only Dick Schultz was able to score for the Falcons as he won his singles match against the Rocket's Rheem, 6-8, 6-4, and 6-2. The rest of the story was all Toledo as the Rockets waltzed through the singles, and then whitewashed the locals in the doubles matches.

This encounter was the Falcons first taste of Mid-American competition, so they go into today's and tomorrow's matches with a 0 and 1 conference record.

Studies of children's fears and those of their parents have shown that there is a close relation between the two.

Baseballers At W. Michigan; MAC League Lead At Stake

The Falcon baseball team treks to Western Michigan today for a two-game week-end series with the highly talented Broncos who handed Bowling Green a previous defeat.

Tuesday's game with Michigan Normal was called off due to wet grounds but is rescheduled for May 19 on the home diamond. The rest, however, may prove valuable to the local boys, especially to hurler Chuck Hunter who was slated to go against MN. The layover could help him a great deal in setting down the Western batsmen.

As of now Bowling Green has a 3-1 conference record which ties them for the league lead. Both of

Students Praise System Of New Election Procedures

By RON RITTER

During the elections Wednesday, students were asked what they thought of the voting system, and how they felt the election was run.

Jan Morris, freshman, said, "I thought that the election was run very well, and that the rally did much to contribute to the spirit of the election. The publicity was very good and brought the elections to the attention of all of the students."

John Buckley, senior, believed that "The elections this year were run with more sincerity than ever before."

Student Government Important

"The students showed a real interest for a very welcome change. I hope the enthusiasm continues and student government realizes its importance on campus and does a more adequate job than in the past."

Christine Redrup, sophomore, stated, "I feel that the election was conducted in a very satisfactory manner."

She added, "The Elections and publicity relations committees working together on the publicity and especially the rally, did much to increase interest and spirit on the campus."

Says Campaigning Weak

Edward Porteous, freshman, remarked, "The actual election was run in a very efficient manner, being well organized and conducted."

"However, I feel that the pre-election campaigning was a little weak. A freshman student, such as myself, had to formulate an opinion without actually knowing all the candidates."

"We should have been allowed to hear also from the Senate candidates so as to know what they would actually try to do if elected. I think the turnout for this election proves that the student body is more interested in the welfare of their school than they are given credit for."

Jo Limbird, junior, thought, "The election was run well this year. The election parade was the biggest we have ever had on this campus."

Parade Comments

"I think next year there would be even more spirit if the parade could be scheduled before dark so everyone would see the candidates, posters, and banners."

"I also think the candidates for Senate representatives should give their speeches so we know what some of their plans are before we vote for them."

Margaret Richards, junior, said, "The rally and the manner of publicity were certainly influential in bringing the attention of the elections to the student body."

"I feel that the system of conducting the voting itself in the entire front room of the nest was excellent and also the use of the P. A. system for reporting number of votes was good."

"I do feel that it is unnecessary on the ballot to elect 13 or so candidates on the ballot and that electing five would be more meaningful."

Faculty, Students Enter Art Works In Toledo Exhibit

The art department faculty and five students currently have works exhibited in the Thirty-fifth Annual Exhibition of Toledo Area Artists at the Toledo Museum of Art.

Mrs. Elden T. Smith, Marlene Swanzel, Mrs. Jeanne Tatum Frye, Donald Konz, and William O'Nan are the students who had their works chosen for exhibition by the out-of-town jury.

Willard F. Wankelman, University art department chairman, said that 265 artists from 12 Ohio and 2 Michigan counties submitted 1,362 items for judging. The jury accepted 431 works from 124 of the artists making this one of the most select shows of the Toledo Federation of Art Societies.

Blade Editor Gives Compliments

Arlene Jean Treanor, Toledo Blade art editor, described the exhibition as "conservative modern" and predominantly made up of "the art of youth." She complimented the University art faculty and those from area schools on their works and training of students.

The regional show will be open through May 31.

University art faculty members won the following awards:

Painting: Karl F. Richards, second ($25) for his oil, "Stock Car Race." Prints and Drawings: Philip R. Wigg, second ($25) for his black and white etching, "Crucifixion." Metal work: Professor Wankelman, honorable mention for his enamels and jewelry group.

Special Awards Given

Special awards: Prof. C. J. Lakofsky, the Toledo Blade Award of $50 for his group of 11 ceramics. Since Professor Lakofsky has been a winner two years in succession, he was ineligible to compete for Federation prizes this year.

Otto G. Oevirk, with his "University Housing," won the Caroline Morgan Memorial Award of $25 for the best oil landscape.

One of the Federation's purchase awards went to Professor Lakofsky for a stoneware bowl which will become a part of the Federation's lending collection.

MEMBER OF QUALITY COURTS

Don't you want to try a cigarette with a record like this?

1. THE QUALITY CONTRAST between Chesterfield and other leading cigarettes is a revealing story. Recent chemical analyses give an index of good quality for the country's six leading cigarette brands.

The index of good quality table—a ratio of high sugar to low nicotine—shows Chesterfield quality highest

... 15% higher than its nearest competitor and Chesterfield quality 31% higher than the average of the five other leading brands.

YEARS AHEAD OF THEM ALL!

Choice of Young America

A recent survey made in 274 leading colleges and universities shows Chesterfield is the largest seller.

2. First to Give You Premium Quality in Regular and King-size . . . much milder with an extraordinarily good taste—and for your pocketbook, Chesterfield is today's best cigarette buy.

3. A Report Never Before Made About a Cigarette. For well over a year a medical specialist has been giving a group of Chesterfield smokers regular examinations every two months. He reports . . . no adverse effects to nose, throat and sinuses from smoking Chesterfield.
